Board Meeting

Proposed amendment

If adopted by the Board on April 22, notice will be sent to the general membership as required prior to the annual meeting.

ARTICLE II
Board of Directors

D. DUTIES AND POWERS: The Board of Directors shall have control and management of the affairs and business of the corporation. The directors shall in all cases act as a Board, regularly convened, and, in the transaction of business, the act of a majority present at a meeting, except as otherwise provided by law, shall bind the corporation, provided a quorum is present. ~~The directors may adopt such rules and regulations for the conduct of their meetings in the management of the corporation, as they may deem proper, not inconsistent with law, the Articles of Incorporation, and these bylaws.~~

Robert's Rules of Order shall govern this Krewe in all meetings and the management of the corporation not inconsistent with law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws.

Coding: Words that are ~~struck through~~ are deletions; words in boldface type and underscored are additions.

ARTICLE VI
Amendments

MANNER OF AMENDING: These bylaws may be altered, repealed, or added to by the request of a member. Written notice shall be sent to each member of record entitled to vote at such meeting at least ten (10) days before the date of the annual or special meeting. This notice shall state the alterations, amendments, additions, or changes, which are proposed to be made. Only such changes shall be made as have been specified in the notice. The approved changes go into effect immediately after a minimum 2/3 vote of the members present at the meeting for that purpose. The bylaws may also be altered, amended, repealed, or new bylaws adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Directors at a regular or special meeting of the Board. The approved change goes into effect sixty (60) days after a majority vote of the entire Board. However, any bylaws adopted by the Board may be altered, amended, or repealed by the general membership within sixty (60) days' notice of the change.
